From GVC India Pvt. Ltd., Hyderabad Letter dated 12-10-2009.

ORDER:

The Indira Gandhi Centre for Advanced Research on Livestock Private Limited (IGCARL) which was incorporated under Companies Act, 1956 as a Private Limited Company 100% owned by Government of Andhra Pradesh entered into an agreement with IMAC (USA)-Dodla Dairy Consortium to form a Joint Venture Company under Public Private Partnership (PPP). Accordingly, the JV Company namely Global Vetmed Concepts India Private Limited (GVC) was incorporated under Companies Act, 1956 to carry out research and development work on livestock, provide training and manufacture of products such as vaccines, milk products, feeds, feed additives, bacterial cultures, enzymes etc.

2. The Government accepted to provide state support to the said JV company in the purchases to be made by the Animal Husbandry Department in respect of the products manufactured by the JV Company. The JV Company in the reference cited requested the Government to issue necessary orders for the purchase their products by the Animal Husbandry Department where such purchases are required by the Department.

3. After careful examination of the request of the said GVC India Pvt. Ltd., the Government hereby direct that the products manufactured by the said GVC India Pvt.Ltd., shall be purchased by the Animal Husbandry Department and its Public Sector Undertakings subject to the following conditions:

(i). The GVC India Pvt. Ltd. should participate in the tender process.

(ii). In case the rates quoted by the GVC India Pvt. Ltd. are same as that of other lowest bidders, preference shall be given to the GVC India Pvt. Ltd.

(iii). In case the GVC India Pvt. Ltd. is not the lowest bidder and the tender of other bidder is accepted, the requirements to an extent of not less than 75% of vaccines and 40% of other items should be purchased from the GVC India Pvt. Ltd. at the option of GVC India Pvt. Ltd. along with the other bidder whose tender is accepted.

4. The Director of Animal Husbandry is directed to incorporate necessary conditions in the tender documents accordingly as and when tenders are called for and take necessary further action in accordance with these orders.
